

Squadron Position Policy

WELCOME

Welcome cadets, officers, sponsors, patrons, armed forces members, and parents to the Kansas City Composite Squadron. The Squadron Policy Directives are designed to guide and help you whether you have been in Civil Air Patrol for some time or are new.

This document is about our squadron and how it is run from week to week. You have probably heard most, if not all, of the information contained here. Now all this information can be at your finger tips, and you will know who to contact to answer your questions. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please feel free to contact the Unit Commander.

Whatever your goal is in Civil Air Patrol, we are here to help see that it is achieved to the best of our ability.

Updates and revisions will occur from time to time as needed. Be sure to check the revision date at the bottom of the page. We will also let you know what is revised from the previous edition by highlighting the text in each document. Cadets, officers, patrons and sponsors of our unit should consult these documents for answers to question about our squadron.

General information including our squadron goals, costs of membership and expectations of members and cadets can be found at www.ahome4.us

Parents are always welcome at our meetings and special events that don't require CAP ID. Parents may attend ALL activities except encampments by becoming a Cadet Sponsor.

For information on cadet, adult or other types of membership requirements, visit www.gocivilairpatrol.com for regulations on membership – CAPR 39-2 or click HERE
